NORD's Thyroid Eye Disease (TED) Emergency Relief Program offers financial assistance to eligible individuals with a confirmed diagnosis of Thyroid Eye Disease with the costs of unexpected or emergency non-medical expenses that they cannot afford without short term assistance. NORD recognizes the burden that managing a rare disease places on a patient and his/her family. This financial burden may impact a patient's ability to afford unexpected or emergency essential (non-medical) expenses such as:

- Unexpected utility costs
- Cell phone bills
- Emergency repairs to car, furnace, home, or major appliances
- Missed rent or mortgage payment due to missed work days or other expenses

NORD's Emergency Relief Programs are designed to assist eligible individuals with these challenges.
